TRUCK DRIVERS ORGANIZE COUNCIL

TRUCK DRIVERS ORGANIZE COUNCIL COVERING EIGHT NORTHWEST STATES

By A. P. of L. Weekly News Service.

Sioux City, Iowa.—A recent two-day conference here of truckdrivers' local unions resulted in the formation of the Northwest District Council of Truck-

Drivers, which is proceeding with amazing rapidity to win standard wages and working conditions for these workers in eight Northwest States.

Drivers represented at the conference there included locals at Des Moines, Sioux Falls, Marshalltown, Mason City.

The local conference was followed by another in Chicago, which started negotiations for a blanket agreement to cover all over-the-road drivers within the area in a circle from Duluth, Milwaukee, Chicago, Rockford, Rock Island, Des Moines, Omaha, Kansas City.

Port Dodge, Omaha, Kansas City, Watertown, Lincoln, Fargo and Morehead, Duluth, Dubuque, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Sioux City. Among recommendations for inclusion in a program are: St. Louis, Kansas City, Lincoln, Sioux Falls, Grand Forks and Fargo, N. D.

The Northwest Council of Truck-drivers selected A. F. Hudson as chairman and Farrell Dobbs as secretary.
